Just use it only and you will be a fan of it.Why is thus quite different from another one? Firstly, according to the language of developer:During the time of working on the computer, we face so many unknown, difficult words. In that case, it is very difficult to find the unknown words from the dictionary. As a result, the speed of work has slow down."Silicon Dictionary" is the developed, user friendly interface and is a rich, strong search engine English-to-Bengali dictionary. You can get so many dictionaries from the market. The main difference of Silicon Dictionary with this is that it is totally free, dynamic search engine and it is faster than other dictionary. Moreover, it gives the Bengali meaning as an image and as a result, you can get the taste of the original dictionary. You can also get the pronunciation of every English word.Hopefully, you have got the clear cut idea. I also say that the main advantage of this site is that it has a good speed. The speed of Silicon is faster than from Shashi or others dictionary. The meaning of the word is in detailed. You get an opportunity to know the word meaning. If you click on the speak button, then you will hear the pronunciation of the English words.But, it is my request to the web developers that they release the update of Bengali to English dictionary with some special advantages very soon.Though the size of it is 122 megabytes, by the way, you will not hopeless. You definitely like it if you use it. It is totally free. It also runs on XP, Vista, 7, 8 and 10.Download the "Silicon" dictionaryNote: After installing it, the error will show in front of you. But, you click on the ignore button, then it will be Ok.Thank you...What's your Reaction?
