If you are looking for a way to take the big game this weekend when you're away from your living room, or you just like to take television live when you're trapped somewhere without cable or television, you have a lot of options to help you take A transmission on your mobile phone or your computer. Here is a look at five of the best ways to tune when you're moving. At the beginning of the week we asked how you tune in the live television you have signed up on your mobile device or when you are not in front of the big screen. You answered, and now we returned to take a look at the first five, based on your nominations. The Super Bowl is this weekend, but not all of us we have the privilege of making snacks and ... Read the mostphoto from the worldwide ik.orb / Orb live trip that you need to transmit audio or video around the house, at Your mobile device, or through the globe when you are away from home, ORB can certainly deliver. We mentioned ORB more times, and it's still a great way to send your media from your computer to other devices at your home, or if you are willing to pay for an ORB appliance to connect to your cable or HTPC box, live stream TV or registered TV on any other device lit or shut down the home network. Orb supports video up to 720p and gives you the flexibility to watch live sports, the prime threet TV shows or anything else that is currently broadcast your living room on your mobile phone, tablet or laptop on Wi-Fi, 3G, or 4G when you can't be in the living room to have fun. Prices vary depending on whether hardware is needed (between $ 79- $ 99 for the set-top box) to connect to the TV and Home network, or you already have a TV tuner in your HTPC (the ORB Live software and Orb Caster are both Free, but the mobile apps are $ 9.99.) Only Windows / Mac: The free ORB application allows you to access music, videos and other media stored on your reading MoreslingboxWhere Other live TV streaming solutions offer complexity, Slingbox offers Elegant simplicity. The Slingbox from Sling Media is a set-top box that connects to the TV and to your cable or to your satellite receiver that you actually simply access your TV at home and watch TV live on your computer or mobile device as if You were sitting in front of your TV. You can change channels, browse TV ads and even set up your home DVR to record TV that will not make it home in time to watch. The Slingbox is available in two flavors, the Slingbox only and the Slingbox Pro-HD (which predictably supports the HD and additional devices connected to it) and will return to you back $ 179.99 to $ 299.99 (excluding support options Extended). You will also need to reduce $ 29.99 for the SlingPlayer app to check your Slingbox from your smartphone or tablet, but the price includes one of the richest live and trouble-free streaming TV streaming solutions on the Weight Eyetv line. Eyetvelgged TV tuners and live TV software were, for a long time, the only option for Mac users looking for an easy way to use their Macs as TV or HTPC tuners. They are no longer the only options, but they are certainly one of the best, and if you connect a television source in an eyeetv eye and then the glasses in your Mac via USB, you want to watch live TV directly on your computer screen. It combines an eye tuner or DVR with the Eyetv app on your mobile device, and you can send TV live or pre-recorded on your mobile device when you're away from home. The Eyetv app will return $ 4.99 in the iTunes App Store for any iOS device and tuners vary at a price from $ 99 to $ 199 depending on the fact that a DTV tuner is needed, a DTV and HD, a tuner with an internal DVR, or a Wi-Fi enabled tuner that can be transmitted TV mode to other devices in your home.VulkanoThe Vulkano flow box may not be one of the most famous set-top tuners on Market, but it's definitely one of the most powerful. For $ 99.99, the Vulkano flow is an easy to install and configuration device that connects to the cable or satellite tuner, supports HD HD And your home network to allow the user to watch live TV wirelessly on your iOS or Android device on the home network or when you are away 3G or 4G. Get full control on TV home, so you can change channels, browse a guide to integrated programming (which you don't need to pay more for viewing), and also connect to other video inputs like a DVR or HTPC and the Check that too. Vulkano offers desktop players for Mac OS and Windows (free) and mobile players for iOS, Android and Blackberry ($ 12.99.) HAUPPEGE WINTVHAUPPEGE is an old name in television tuners, and the company is still going strong by offering a range Products to HTPC enthusiasts who want to build their devices to slide, save and watch live and record television and people who would prefer to buy a set-top box to manage streaming for them. Those of you who named the WinTV mentioned that you can easily install a WinTV tuner in your HTPC and download the WinTV application on the HTPC and iOS or Android device to transmit TV from your HTPC to your device. The prices vary depending on the tuner you want, whether you want the HD video and if you want to install an internal tuner or USB or simply prefer a set-top box such as the Hauppauge Broadway ($ 199), but the WinTV App Addence Apps you will need it from your tuner will return $ 9.95 and the mobile apps are free (although they only support wi-fi.) Now that you saw the top five, it's time to put them to a vote all out for the winner. The mentionsHonorable mentions this week going out in Streaming TV sites like Justin.TV, which many of you have said you use to send your TV programs to the web so you can capture them when you're away from home, and to the NFL website, which Many of you noticed are really streaming of the great game alone. Finally, since we said that the Security Homeland department had closed the primary domain of FisterSports, many of you have taken note of the fact that the site is still active and functioning on another URL. A preferred method that has not received the nomination necessary to make the first five? Do you want to take a case for this, or for your favorite candidates above? Sound out in the comments below. Photo of courtesy: Newswatch / Pixabay in the television business, those with experience say you should never work with animals and children. Maybe they had the right idea, because this list has both! There are also a lot of bad weather, bad behavior, bad attitudes and simply bad, bad, bad - all caught on the camera. Live TV offers great entertainment, but it always comes with some risks. Today, thanks to the magic of YouTube, the hilarious moments caught on the camera can be seen more and more sometimes. Take a look at some of the most embarrassing things, embarrassing and unexpected to ever take place live TV! The anchoring of the news on KY3 could not help but chuckle in this sketch released by Pennsylvania's Police on their Facebook page after a robbery at a farmer's market. The doodle similar to children was actually done by a well-intentioned testimony of crime, but it was certainly strange that the police considered him worth sharing. Photo of courtesy: Top Five Central / YouTube on the other hand, the release of this sketch has pushed people to come forward, and the thief has been captured - even if they give all the merit to the sketch is rather questionable. Even more interesting is the contrast between the western looks of the thief and its eastern name "Fung Phouc Nyugen. Have you ever wanted the soil swallowed only? I'm pretty sure that this is what this He had to think. Just before the activity of the day segment show, the hosts told their resident meteorologist who would discuss "oscillating". Photo courtesy: Top Five Central / YouTube Their colleague was completely confused on the subject, and he is strictly tried to wrap the head around because they would discuss group sex - not the oscillating pastime of children (obvious intention). Rather than drop the meteorologist, the anchors rolled with it, it, Their heads until the poor boy realized his mistake. It is nice that this show has transmitted a topic as potentially insipid as the stock market bringing stage objects. However, when the prop in question is a live bird, they say the idea could ask for a lot of problems. Photo of courtesy: Top Five Central / YouTube The camera focused on the first presenter while enveloped his news report. However, we could feel a bit of a comfort comfort, and the newleader was clearly distracted and smiling. While the shot brought together on his colleague, the spectators could see that he kept a rather panic turkey. Why? Simply because it was thanks. To twist an old saying, too many hosts ruin the relationship. At least this is what probably thought that this apparently gigantic black bird thought when PhotoBobed Ktvu weatherman Mark Tamayo Broadcast. Straight landing on the camera, the eyes of Bird's Body stared directly into the lens, making the creature look much larger than its natural size. Photo Courtesy: Top Five Central / YouTube apparently had the desired effect, because signals came from the green screen, while the bird is satisfied with some other moments of transmission time. In the end he beat his wings and took off, satisfied with the 15 seconds of fame of him. Tip © is obvious that no one is wounded, then you have to admit it, it's a bit fun when people fall. This is even more true when you aggravate through a seriously practical shoes, like this catwalk model. And it's doubly funny when they fall twice! Photo courtesy: Top Five Central / YouTube however, you expect the news anchors to be professionals and reinstates in laughter. Unfortunately, Jim Vance and George Michael of News4 could not pull him out. Considering that this clip was observed several million times, it is a good thing Polish model Kamila Wawrdzyniak has a good sense of humor. She says she rice just together with everyone else. I find it hard hard to believe that the ice hockey analyst's head was so far in the game you didn't understand what she was drawing. Also Al, Ahem, image base, you can simply perceive what was coming (sorry). So, for the drawing to continue so Á ç à, ~ "without even a failed smile from his creator - it was pretty crazy. Photo Cortesy: Best TV News Bloopers fails 2017 / YouTube was not difficult to see, of course - also His colleagues on the Hungarian news channel could be heard in the background. The bad news of all were too busy in Snicaning to discuss the rigid opposition. It is just to say that this newleader has not been prepared for its unexpected co-yet. The black labrador retriever has been presented with a zero, surprising newleader Ilona Linaarte. However, he continued, even when the disruptive little dog ventured around the desk and jumped to take a look at what was on it. Photo of courtesy: Best TV News Bloopers fails / 2017 The presenter's surprise was real, as he exclaimed in Russian who was more than a cat person and had no idea how the dog arrived there. The station later He explained that hairy intruder was programmed to appear on another program and had wandered away. Some people will do everything to be on TV. Take this baseball guy, for example, for example. It's not known if the studio knew the boy, but certainly laughed while he slowly settled in the shot, he faced the camera, he started to destroy and said: "Thunderstorms, thunderstorms, thunderstorms". In any case, they don't seem to be in a hurry to do it out of screen. Photo of courtesy: Best TV News Bloopers fails 2017 / YouTube IL It was simply looked at, bemused. He seemingly decided to bring out the guy the invasion from him system of him before he finally said: "I need to go to my safe space." The deliberately false names are often chosen to be fun, as demonstrated by a man presumably known as "Hugh Janus". The joker, who worked in a local Long Island Liquor Store, was interviewed by news journalists who were trying to report on a proposed proposed power plant Photo of courtesy: Best TV News Bloopers fails 2017 / YouTube Commenting as the vast road work to bury new power lines would influence his commuting, "Hugh" seemed a little irritated, saying: "I mean, Stuart Avenue is already bad enough During the top hour, so I think this could make the traffic even worse, which is bad for my commuting." The demolition of Georgia Dome was a very anticipated event, with people who crowd look at everything Come to crumble down. Those who could not make it at the site were fast to tune the channels with the best view, which the time channel thought I had it. Photo of courtesy: Best TV News Bloopers fails / YouTube unfortunately, after live streaming for 40 minutes without accidents, right at the crucial moment of detonation - a bus stopped in front of the camera and completely obscured the shot. Can you imagine the collective indignation? Weather channel editor James Cruble can be listened to be pleaded for the bus to move, but he did at least see the fun side and shared the sweets movies to Twitter. When American Academic Robert Kelly appeared on BBC World News, the young son of him wanted to come and say hello. Dad was in the middle of an interview, but he obtained the situation partially under control while the cameras continued to roll. Photo of courtesy: Best TV News Bloopers fails / YouTube but the drama is not over. His second child arrived randomly walking inside, he followed awkwardly by his wife, who threw the entire Kiddy crew in a very comic fashion. "I couldn't understand why the BBC was carrying out with the interview," Kelly said at the Guardian. "Maybe they realized it was right as the comedy." Professor of Security Studies Mia Bloom is an estimated Canadian academic and author of several serious books. So of course, it was a pity a bit when he appeared on him on CNN was interrupted by Doggy equipment. Photo of courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube speaking with the authority in the camera, Dr. Bloom seems to sink while the camera loses its corner. Back in the studio, everyone kept a professional face professionally while the camera turned backup again and the transmission continued. We hope that Professor Bloom still succeeded to put the points of him, despite the camera corner capers! This pair of fiberbers went viral for the way they stared at Erin Andrews during the NFL Show post-game on Fox News. The public even gave them their nicknames: Beardo and Dreads. Courtesy photo: Sean Gajewski / YouTube After their goofy expressions, frozen expressions were sent to millions, the couple decided to continue their photobombing heritage on today's spectacle. Furthermore, the duo struck by stars Á ç à, ~ "real names Hans and Broc - managed to drive their 15 minutes of fame still further landing yourself an interview with Katie Nolan from New Sports Talk Show by Fox. The crowd it becomes wild. News Anchor John Knelly was around for a while, so he probably remembers the Pepsi crystal when he came out for the first time. Pepsi's attempt in a new soft drink took place in Á ç à, ~ 90, but the light colored drink was never very impressed. Photo of courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube Knelly's slip of the language - Or at least we hope it happened when it was reading the tweets on the show, which were all the flashbacks of the Á ç à, ~ 90s. Instead of reading "nothing will never be as beautiful as Crystal Pepsi", instead professed his love for crystal. Ice! Big Brother UK Star Latiysha Grace was eager to show his twerking capacities during a ' Interview. However, his tight dress can not be to contain the loot of her when she turned her to the camera to dance - and pop! Photo courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube Comradimento RealtÁ TV-Star-Turn-Chat-host Rylan Clark Clark was quick to try to convince the Latelysha curves in her busted clothing of her, while Welsh beauty was crying: " Why is this being happening? " Rylan, giggling, of course, he simply told her that she had made her day of her. Fortunately, no advertising is a bad advertising when it comes to Realty TV Real! Everyone wants to look at best, especially when you are six On live TV. Apparently, this BBC News Anchor broadcast has arrived a little longer than you expected, and she had not finished increasing her hair. Photo of courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube The camera was revolved while Carole Walker made some last-minute preparations for her spectacle of her - and then she realized that she was already alive in the air. You quickly put the brush, but the bag of her was left sitting on the desk when she started the news. Still, good for, Carole, to make your hair, and that was a good handbag! This is another old clip, but it deserves to be presented for a pure shock value. The young female lion in this first Mexican television clip of the early 2000 was calm at the beginning, but the ears of him dotted to the baby knobby and then walked away! Photo courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube The child's conductor and mother took action and grabbed the puppy and held the screaming child, everything he looked ridically calm. Why did the mother smiled for good love? And what was a child in stage with a lion first? Fortunately, everyone was fine, but it's a good bet that this child has not asked to go to the zoo after this episode. It is right to say the Australian Network Nine Reporter Brittney Kleyn was taken by surprise when the mother nature introduced its own vocals to the transmission. Although I lived in one of the most rich wildlife countries in the world, Brittney was captured by the guard and shouted when a parrot landed on her shoulder. Photo courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube You didn't seem to see the humorous side of the interruption, he declared: "This is not fun," and said his colleagues to remove the pretty feathered creature. With such a reaction, we didn't even worried about considering how she would have addressed the situation of the lion over. Bill Murray is a hot, isn't he? A quick search for Google or YouTube brings all kinds of funny activities that Murr-Meister has been involved over the years. This particular clip is a classic. Photo of courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube he had already launched shots back on the David Letterman Show when he broke up the set of the last word with the Lawrence of MSNBC OÁ ç à ç Donnell. He blew on a high stool "and immediately approached. Then he went ahead to get rid of the rest of the interview. But is still a legend? It is absolutely. Not satisfied with keeping his trolling confined to Twitter, Jon Hendren him He brought live TV. In some way, it was called to give his opinions on a show on Edward Snowden. "To say that he couldn't damage someone with what he did Á ç à, ~" he could, "said Hendren On the viral news of HLN the daily fee. Photo of courtesy: All times Live news worst failed / YouTube has soon became evident the straight front Jokerster was talking about Edward Scissorhands, the misunderstood character played by Johnny Depp. Rolling with it, he added Hendren, "to throw it out ... simply because he has a scissors for his hands? I mean, it's strange." Piers Morgan is a well-known and rather controversial figure. This makes the Sass of British Weatherman Alex Beresford, so much more hilarious. The meat between these two in this morning is in progress and includes Morgan by calling the "pathetic" meteorologist and saying that he "he couldn't hate him more" than he has done it. Photo of courtesy: this morning the Great Britain / ITV Beresford usually offers its expressions to speak, but when he was asked if he was relied on the support of Morgan while he danced on ice, he replied: "That of Which I really need is that the Piers continue to hate me, then everyone will support me. This my plan! No list of embarrassing bloopers would be complete without a good old-fashioned flash. This report on the NBC Bay Area News report on a fundraising of Hillary Clinton was appropriately serious and discussed money in politics. However, a daring woman has decided to donate something a little different from the cause. Photo of courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube with a cheeky smile, the sgraved lady stood in the shot of shot and raised it raised While the newleader, Pete Suratos, remained unaware. When the feed has returned to the studio, the Anchoroman has simply decubitus: "And we apologize for that in the background of the Live Pete shot." Unlike the BBC's Carole Walker, Hannah Storm, let other people prepare the look of her for live TV. She was going to read the Sportscenter report by ESPN, and the hand of the artist makeup can still be seen in the shot, plus some touches of the last minute on the face of Hannah. Photo of courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube after realizing that they were already alive, Hannah gave the artist trick a good push - and followed a twitter storm. Of course, she took Twitter to say that the make-up artist was "a good friend" and "would have been got in important trouble if she had been viewed". A probable story, Hannah. This Anchoroman did not have a response so aggressive when she was invaded her shoot, but she is probably because she was clearly captured by the guard. Wendy Burch was alive in Kila 5 when a cheeky boy came down silently behind her to hit a pose. Photo of courtesy: Sean Gajewski / YouTube, suddenly noticing man, Wendy screamed and jumped. Iulareriously, even the man jumped, and the cameraman told him quickly while his colleague was composed. Wendy has managed to barely save himself to swear live the TV while she giggled and said: "You have scared the Shhh from me!" At this point, we have established that there are four common reactions for television levels in a ç
